

On February 6th, 2015 a wrestler from Centennial, Doyle Trout, stood on a podium inside our Sandy Creek gym and received his SNC Conference Champion medal. Two weeks later he stood on another podium in Omaha and received his State Championship medal for the 4th consecutive year.

Doyle Trout is a champion in every sense of the word. He's been competing at a high level for several years under the instruction of his dad, Jon, and several other greats including Ken Chertow. Doyle understands hard work and sacrifice, and he understands that the road to greatness is a tough one. Very few young men have achieved what Doyle has and remained as humble and down to earth.

A big part of being a champion in any sport is realizing that you must attempt to achieve greatness in every aspect of your life in order to truly be the best you can be. He works as hard in the classroom as he does at practice. Knowing he had several offers coming his way, it was important to Doyle to choose the right school aside from just the wrestling program. Doyle recently committed to attend the University of Wyoming in the fall, after he graduates next month from Centennial High School in Utica, NE.

And if they gave out gold medals for being a friend, Doyle would don several of them. He's fun, loyal, goofy, inspirational and kind hearted. And anyone who calls him friend is lucky to do so.

On Easter Sunday - April 5, 2015, Doyle was in a one-vehicle accident near Waco, NE. Both of his legs were severely damaged in the accident. His right femur was broken above the knee, but the doctors were able to repair it. His left leg, however, was too badly damaged to be repaired, as an artery was cut and the doctors were forced to amputate above the knee.

Doyle is recovering in the hospital, but even when he's able to go home, he has a very long and difficult road ahead of him. You can follow his story on the Facebook page, Prayers for Doyle Trout. Please consider helping our Red Raider Wrestling team support a member of the wrestling community by purchasing our Red Raiders Guns Up #DOYLE STRONG t-shirt. All funds raised will be paid directly to Jon Trout (Doyle's father) to help cover Doyle's medical and rehabilitation expenses.
